

1001 Books You Must Read Before You Die

Peter Boxall. Preface by Peter Ackroyd

Pub Date: 1 Oct 2012
ISBN: 9781844037407
Price: £20.00
New Edition

Previous ISBN: 9781844036141
Binding PB FLAPS
Size 210 x 160 mm, 6¼ x 8¼ inches
Extent 960
Words 250000
Illustrations 100

Audience description G General
Rights Worldwide not for sale in: US, AU, CA, NZ
Subject classification GB

Distributed by orders@lbsltd.co.uk 01903 828511
Trade orders
 tradeorders@octopus-publishing.co.uk

Also published by Cassell Illustrated
 1001 Movies You Must See Before You Die
 9781844037339

1001 Children's Books You Must Read Before
 You Grow Up
 9781844036714

A comprehensive and up-to-date guide to the best fiction from around the world. Completely redesigned with over 150 new images.

SALES AND MARKETING POINTS

- This new update for 2012 includes 150 new images of original book covers and a complete list of major literary prize winners
- Comprehensive reference guide encompassing the history of the novel
- Compiled by experts, academics, journalists, authors to give insightful critiques of all the writers and books that have fired imaginations all over the world
- Helpful for those wanting to expand their reading but don't know where to start

THE BOOK

Completely revised and updated to include the most up-to-date selections, this is a bold and bright reference book to the novels and the writers that have excited the world's imagination. This authoritative selection of novels, reviewed by an international team of writers, critics, academics, and journalists, provides a new take on world classics and a reliable guide to what's hot in contemporary fiction. Featuring more than 700 illustrations and photographs, presenting quotes from individual novels and authors, and completely revised for 2012, this is the ideal book for everybody who loves reading.

THE AUTHOR

Peter Boxall is a senior lecturer in English Literature at the University of Sussex. He has published widely on drama and twentieth-century fiction and contributes regularly to journals such as The Yearbook of English Studies. He has recently published a Reader's Guide to Samuel Beckett's drama and current projects include co-editing The Year's Work in Critical and Cultural Theory, Don DeLillo: The Possibility of Fiction and a study on contemporary fiction, Since Beckett.

Peter Ackroyd is well known for writing historical fiction. His awards are numerous, including the Guardian Fiction Prize, Whitbread Biography Award, Royal Society of Literature William Heinemann Award and the James Tait Black Memorial Prize to name but a few. He has written biographies on T.S. Eliot, Charles Dickens and more and also holds a C.B.E for services to literature.

1001 Books You Must Read Before You Die

Peter Boxall. Preface by Peter Ackroyd

CONTENTS

A selection of the greatest contemporary and classic books you should read including:

Aesop's Fables, Little Women, The Hitch-Hiker's Guide to the Galaxy, Wuthering Heights, Jane Eyre, Breakfast at Tiffany's, Bleak House, Crime and Punishment, Arcadia, Foucault's Pendulum, On the Road, The Cider House Rules, The Good Soldier, The Water-Babies, Brighton Rock, A Room with a View, American Psycho, A Clockwork Orange, Kidnapped, Uncle Tom's Cabin, The Invisible Sons, The Passion, Sexing the Cherry, La Bête Humaine, Cloud Atlas and many many more